A PRAISEWORTHY MOVEMENT.-The Park called Mission Place, in the Five Points, between the Mission Houses, is being cleared out and ornamented so as to afford a piace for the children to play in when the weather becomes warm, as well as to be a pleasant place of resort for the older inhabitants of that locality. Contributions in the shape of plants and roots will b very thankfully received at Mr. Pease's, as the funds on hand are not sufficient to carry out the object in the desired manner.

Broadway .- At the meeting of the Broadway Cleaning Association last night, the following plan for Size In regard to "keeping the street free from dost and attent of arriag the Scramer," I would respectfully suggest to your Cosmittee the following plan:

First: To sweep the carriage surface every night, between the barr of 12 and 4 o'clock, as we are now doing.

Second: To sweep, in like manner, the cross streets for a square such way, immediately intersecting Broadway.

Therd: To keep a force of men, with fine brooms, &c., stationed along the street during the day to remove the sweepings of timed along the street during the day to remove immediately all horse droppings, &c., that may be hown to the sides.

Fourth: Should this not keep the dust perfectly out of the greet, te have it lightly sprinkled, not slushed, during the midge of the day.

For the street is lightly sprinkled, not stussed, under the day.

I estimate the whole cost of this work at about $450 per week of which sum the City Inspector will pay $120 per week until the streets of the city are contracted out to be cleaned, when, it is expected, the contractor will do all the nightly cleaning, there is reducing the expense of the work to the citizens to about $200 per reducing the expense of the work to the citizens to about $200 per reducing the expense of the work to the citizens to about $200 per reducing the expense of the work to the citizens to about $200 per reducing the expense of the work to the citizens to about $200 per reducing the expense of the work to the citizens to about $200 per reducing the expense of the work to the citizens to about $200 per reducing the expense of the work to the citizens to about $200 per reducing the expense of the work to the citizens to about $200 per reducing the expense of the work at the expense of the work to the citizens to about $200 per reducing the expense of the work to the citizens to about $200 per reducing the expense of the work to the citizens to about $200 per reducing the expense of the work to the citizens to about $200 per reducing the expense of the work to the citizens to about $200 per reducing the expense of the work to the citizens to about $200 per reducing the expense of the work to the citizens to about $200 per reducing the expense of the work to the citizens to about $200 per reducing the expense of the work to the citizens to about $200 per reducing the expense of the work to the citizens to about $200 per reducing the expense of the work to the citizens to about $200 per reducing the expense of the work to the citizens to about $200 per reducing the expense of the work to the citizens to about $200 per reducing the expense of the work to the citizens the expense of the work to the citizens the citizens the expense of the work to the citizens the citizens the citizens the citizens the citizens the citizens the citizen by reducing the expense of the work to the criticals to about $2 work.

Should this plan be adopted, I feel every assurance that Broadany will be entirely tree from dust and such at a less cost to the parekeepers than it has heretofore cost them for sprinkling alone, sprinkling in former seasons has, it is estimated, cost the redculous on the street from $400 to $450; and then, if the street was kept free from dust, it was at the expense of having it contiously in a state of slash and mud.

Tours, very respectfully, R. A. SMITH, Contractor.

The sprinkling is yet an open question; but if the sweeping is promptly done, no sprinkling will be required. Even now, in March, where in former year we have had dense clouds of dust constantly in motion we have little to complain of. When the high winds of Spring subside, there need be no sprinkling. The slippery, muddy surface made by the water is far more disagreeble and dangerous than any probable mount of dust.

Assault upon Mr. Burron .- On Saturday evening last, about 80'clock, as Mr. Wm. E. Burton was passing through the vestibule of his theater, in company with a friend, a man named Jas. M. Sanderson bestowed upon Mr. B. some opprobrious epithet. Mr. Burton made some remark to his friend, when Sanderson, considering that it was meant for him, walked up to the former and asked for an explanation. Words ensued-not very sweet-sounding words, nor words of lofty import, but wrangling words, and profane words. Mr. Burton's friend interfered, and endeavored to pour oil upon the troubled waters, but without effect. Sanderson, being excited to the highest pitch, drew off and gave his an tagonist a blow which, it is said, drew blood, "the first blood." Mr. Burton squared off and pitched in, and but for the interference of the friend aforesaid and the bystanders, would no doubt have squelched the redoubt able Sanderson. Officer J. O. Miller of the Fifteenth Precise being near at hand, was called in, and arrested Sanderson and conveyed him to the Station House, where Lieut. Upham was on duty. Mr. Bur to preferred a complaint of assault and battery against Sanderson, which was entertained by the Lieutenant as will appear by the following entry upon the blotter:
"James M. Sanderson was arrested by Officer J. O. Miller at

Pursuant to adjournment, the parties met at Judge Russell's office on Montay, where an examination was had, which resulted in the Judge holding the accused to bail to await the action of the Grand Jury in the premises. In the course of the evening it was shown that Mr. Sanderson was the aggressor in striking the first blow, although the accused en-Thus the matter rests at present. It appears that there has long existed a fend between Mr. Burton and Sanderson, in consequence, as rumor says, of the latter baving gone to Mrs. Burton and made certain remarks to her relative to her husband, and the expression made use of by Sanderson to Mr. Burton as Mr. B was entering the theater on the night in question is not proper for publication. Mr. Sanderson was formerly proprietor of the College place Hotel, and is now steward of the New-York Hotel. He contends that he can prove the truthfulness of every epithet he bestowed upon Mr. Burton.

FRACAS AMONG THE PUGILISTS .- Some of th friends of "Paudeen" and of "Dad Cunningham," changing to meet last evening at the corner of Broadway and Heward street, fell into an altercation relative to the late affray which resulted in the death of "Paudeen." The quarrel was taken up by two of the party. McCorthy and "Figgy" or "Fingers," who doffed their costs and went at it, pummeling each other as lustily as they could, their respective friends forming a ring around them, with pistols in hand, threatening to shoot anybody who should attempt to interfere with the sport. McCarthy came out second best and was Toy CHIMINAL LIBEL. - In the matter of the atrocion libel upon one of our most respectable merchants con tained in a vile letter addressed to his wife, the circum stances of which were investigated a few days since before Justice Connolly, at the Tombs, it will be recol lected that two brothers, Morris and Enoch George were charged with the offense. Enoch was discourged tpos giving bonds to keep the peace, while Morris was held under $500 ball to appear and answer the charge at the Court of General Sessions. Since that investigation proof has been furnished the prosecutor which appears to fasten the guilt of this crime upon a different party, who has decamped and keeps out of the cintones of the police. Sufficient facts at any rate have been adduced to show that Morris George and Rooch George are innocent of the charge; and, therefore, while the prosecutor is determined that the scoundrei, whose designs have been frustrated by his own action in the matter, shall be severely punished, if arrested, he is desirous of doing no injustice to innocent parties, and cheerfully assents to this statement be ing made public.

FUNERAL OF PAUDEEN.-The funeral of Patrick MoLaughlin, alias Paudeen, alias Pauge, took place yestercay afternoon from John Lyng's rum-hole in Houston street, near Broadway, and was numerously attended - there being probably from two thousand to three thou-and persons present. From an early hour in the morning the house where the dead man lay was besieged by the "fancy," who, having gratified themsaives with a parting look at the defunct pugilist, proecoded to the bar-room, where they drawned their serrows in brandy. The pumps and bullies of Morees street, Gourch street, Water street, Canal street, Con-tre street, and the Pive Points, attended en masse. All the "flash" and "fancy" were there shoulder-hitters, pickpockets, burglars, gamblers, and all corts of thieves cenerally. The remains were interred at Calvary Cemetery, the great Roman Catholic burial-place.

DESCENT UPON A DISORDERLY HOUSE IN THE RAW. ERY -At a late hour on Tuesday night the police made a descent upon a low crib called Empire Hall, lecated in the basement of No. 288 Bowery, kept by Thomas Ryan. The place has long been known to the police as a disorderly house and a resort for vile characters.

The police entered in a body, and found a number of young men and women dancing and conducting themelves in a disorderly maner. The company were greatly astonished, but submitted quietly to the arrest. They were taken to the Fifteenth Precinct Station House and locked up for the remainder of the night. Yesterday morning the prisoners were conveyed be fore Justice Quackenbush, at the Jefferson Market Police Court, where they gave their names and ages as follows:

as follows:

Thos. Ryan, —; Louisa Miller, 18; Elizabeth Youman 18; Ann Ryer, 17; Barbara Bonner, 15; Kate Dick, 19; Elira Boyle, 22; Marzaret Thompson, 18; Elizabeth Housken, 15; Joseph Swarte, 18; Wm. Roden, 19; Chas. van Tased, 21; John Duffy, 19; Jas Couway, 29; Patrick Keenan, 21; Geo. Sheriff, 20; Wm. Raden, 22; John Farlow, 17; Jas. Maher, 21; Thos. Mitchell, 18; Frederick Strader, 18; Peter Flian, 19; Dennis Loughlin, 20; William Young, 19; Wm. Porch, 18; Wm. Miller, 17; John Thompson, 18; John F. Narin, 18; Geo. Brennan, 17.

The prisoners when taken to the Station-House thought it great fun, and thinking that they were to be locked up together in one cell, calculated upon having s good time generally; but their countenances wore a different aspect upon being arraigned before the magistrate at the Police Court. Several denied having been in the place before, while others acknowledged having been there very often. The magistrate, after hearing their stories in explanation of their conduct, committed them to prison for examination.

-Let the reader note the ages of the persons above named. The oldest 22, the youngest 15-average les than 19. It is from this class of vagabond boys and half-grown prostitutes that nearly all the rowdyism of the city springs. It further appears, from the names, that nearly all are foreigners, or the children of foreign born parents.

MYSTERIOUS-SUSPICION OF FOUL-PLAY.- During the past week, rumors have been affoat in Portchester Westchester County, that a newly born infant has re cently been spirited away or disposed of by its reputed father under very suspicious circumstances. According to the best information elicited in relation to the affair, it appears that an aged, respectable physician residing in the vicinity of Portchester, about ten days ago, intimated to some of his friends, that he had been called upon to attend a lady during her accouchment; that prior to the occurrence o that event, while on a professional visit to the lady the reputed father of the then expected little responsi bility, expressed a desire, in case it should come into the world alive, that its existence should be very brief; that in due time the lady in question "gave birth to a fine and as healthy a child as any one could desire to see," which has since disappeared very mysteriously The doctor, at the request of Coroner Morrill, promised to render what assistance he could in furthering the ends of justice by trying to discover what disposition had been made of the little stranger, but on interrogating the venerable M. D. again on the subject, he re marked to the Coroner, that the circumstances referred to transpired about six years ago. This new version of the affair does not go down very well with the good folks of the village, who think that the venerable practitioner told the truth in the first instance.

DEATH IN SING SING PRISON-THE BODY BROUGHT 10 THIS CITY .- Yesterday afternoon information was received at the Coroners' Office, that a man named Marren, recently a prisoner confined in Sing Sing Prison on a charge of felony, was lying dead at the house No. 294 West Twenty-eighth street. Death occurred last Monday morning, after which the remains were removed to this city-a physician having given a certificate that death was the result of convulsions. On account of the declarations of his friends that numerous marks of violence were perceptible on the body, the City Inspector refused to honor the certificate, and handed the case over to the Coroner for investigation. An inquisition will be held on the body to-day. It is possible that the supposed marks of violence may be the result of decomposition.

COMMERCIAL MATTERS.

WEDNESDAY, March 24-P. M. The young panic which has for several days seemed to take possession of the Stock Market, was pretty effectually arrested his morning, and the turn upwar was sustained with agreat deal of activity and spirit. The buyers were mainly for short account, the market having been somewhat oversold by the bears who now, at the symptoms of a rebound, come in with a rush to cover outstanding contracts and to realize profits, There has also been a larger demand from outsiders, who have been attracted by the low points of yester day's transactions, and all of this new movement taking one direction at the same time that the opposition of the bears had been almost entirely withdrawn-the market has received an impulse more than commonly vigorous, though lacking in fact some very important elements in point of permanence and stability. The transactions at the First Board were very large, especially in the shares which are favorites for speculation The carly sales of New-York Central were at 89, an advance of 2 P cent over closing sales of yesterday's Second Board; but at the close of the call the stock was a little heavy at a fraction lower. Erie was quite active and went up to 251, but settled back again to 21, is concluding sales, and appeared to drag rather heavily. Hudson River was in demand up to 26%, and closed firm. Reading opened at 53, but was not sustained, and after touching 52; left off in request and rather scarce. Michigan Southern had a strong and steadily improving market rising to 221, at which quotation the market was cleared of stock. The Preferred was also better, and advanced 31 ? cent over closing transactions of yesterday. Toledo had an active market, advancing to 11], on the call, with considerable vigor. Rock Island went up to 76, and was in good request, though scarcely sustained at the close. The movements in Galena, Panama Canton, Illinois Central and other stocks were not important, but the market shows a corresponding degree of improvement in nearly everything quoted. The largest transactions were in stocks which had particularly attracted the notice of the bears, and the rebound is therefore greater in some of the fancies than in stocks which are mainly influenced by purchasers for investment. At the Second Board the current of the market was still toward improvement. New-York Central was slightly lower, but before the adjournment had nearly recovered the highest quotation of the morning. Hudson River advanced to 271, and wa in demand. Michigan Southern, Reading, Erie and Harlem, were also better. Bond transactions for the day were not large, but well distributed through the list of securities, and generally at a fair improvement in quotations. At the close of business in the street the market was quite strong for the leading stocks though not very active. Reading was offered down to 51 on account of a reported defalcation in the office of

The principal interest of the street centers to-day in the Stock market. But little else of moment has transpired. The demand for 3 & cent Treasury Notes for Custom-House purposes is good at | 0 | P coat disccunt. The absorption for this purpose averages about $30,000 per day. The new issue have not yet been received by takers here to any extent, and they are held at about 131 ? cent premium. The endeavor How Not to Do It is still persevered in at Washington, consequently the Secretary managed to be without blanks after the bids were accepted, and the takers are obliged to wait until blanks can be furnished by the engraver at New-York. The business of the Clearing House was $18,969,909, which is larger than the average. The Metropolitan Certificates are reduced to $529,000. The Chemical Bank has declared a quarterly dividend of 6 ? cent, payable 5th April. The land sales of the Illinois Central Railroad Company for the firs two weeks of March were 2,121 acres for $27,888 04. which is equal to the sales for the whole of February. The assignees of this road will shortly declare a dividend of 50 P cent on the option serip due last January, the remainder to be paid soon; and will probably pay in April a dividend of 25 P cent on the acceptances of the Company, to be followed up by other payments as rapidly as the subscriptions to the loan are realized. A general meeting of the Directors of the La Crosse and Milwankee Road has just been held at Milwankee, at which some important business was done. The Exec utive Committee, which heretofore enjoyed a perqui site of $500 P month, have had their pay stopped, the service being now performed by the Albany directors.

and rix-tenths acres, and the average price per acre has been $7,400.06, being 17 cents per equare foot. The number of houses upon the Company's lands is 44, creeted at a cost of over $150,000. The population is about 200.

The Company's lands originally comprised four hundred and fourteen acres. From this are to be deducted streets, land sold, and land dividend No. I, eaving unsold about 14,000,000 of feet, or 325 acres. The prices thus far obtained have been entirely satisfactory. The original estimates for sales were based upon an average price V foot of 12;c. The actual sales to the present time average 17 cents V foot. We now obtain from 20 to 23 cents V foot for lots for which, three years since, we should not have asked more than 15.

The length of streets built upon the property is about 41 miles. The amount required for this puraverage price V foot of 12 c. The actual

The Boston and Chelsea Railroad Company was chartered for the construction of a horse railroad from Haymarket square in Boston to Chelsea. It is located upon Broadway, which passes through the center of the Company's lands for about a mile. Chelsea, which but a few years ago had only three houses and twenty inhabitants, has within the past year become a city.

The Directors say:
In 1805, a land dividend of $3 $\psi$ share was made, but no dividend has yet been made in cash. It has been the settled policy of the Company to reserve ample means for such improvements as might from time to time be needed, and also for loans to purchasers of lard for building purposes, and to this policy we shall still adhere. But the principal expenditures for improvements have now been made, and, as already stated, the amount annually required for that purpose will be small. Loans to purchasers also are now seldom required. A larger accumulation seems therefore unnecessary, and the position of the Company now warrants the payment of cash dividends.

In pursuance of these views, the Directors have passed the following votes:

Forcet That a dividend of half a colar per share be paid on and offer April 20, to stockholders of recur April 3.

Forcet, That the transfer books be closed from Sahrdey April 3, to Weddrascay, April 1. The Directors say:

question in the case was whether the rights of the holders of certain indorsed bonds were affected by a violation of law in indorsing them. Judge McLean and:

The indorsement complained of was by the defeadant jointly and severally, with the Bellefontoine and Indiana Company, and the Indiana and Bellefontaine Railroad Company, for $400,000 of the third mettage bonds of the Columbus, Figua and Indiana Railroad Company, bearing care, let April, 1854.

These bonds were alleged to be void, mainly upon the ground that William Dennison, jun., a stockholder in the Columbus, Figua and Indiana Railroad Company, bearing care let April, 1854.

The act of Indiana Railroad Company, purchased, in connection with his father-in-law, William Nedl. $600,000 in bonds, under the third mortrage of the Company, $400 of which were indeed by the defendant.

The act of December 5, 1852, the charter of the Figua Company, declares the bonds or stock, "If purchased for less than the par value by a director, shall be null and void. Before the parchase, Dennisou resigned his office of director, though the law declared he should continue in office until his successar was elected and qualified. There is no evidence that Mr. Dennison, after his resignation acted as director; and if there were, it is not perceived how such a fact could be material to affect the rights of the bondholders in this case. It is true a consideration is accessary to support a guaranty, but a want of this could not be shown to destroy the right of a bondholder, who purchased without notice and in good faith.

For the six hundred thousand dollar bonds, Nell & Donnison agreed to pay three hundred and five thousand dollars.

It is admitted that the bonds, and the compone attached to them, for the payment of interest, are negotiable pages. They are made payable to bearty, and pass on delivery; and we are now to consider the purchasers of these bonds as form feet when handled have purchasers of the compone attached to them, for the pounds of the two Road, and the roles conn

Cleveland Road.

Some ten or twelve arrangements, similar in spirit to the above, had be neathered into by the Cleveland road, with other roads and companies, and were proved to establish a usage of the company, which contracts had been published in their annual reports and distributed to the stockholders without objection on ports and distributed to the second showed an acquiescence on their part.

This andoubtedly, to some extent, showed an acquiescence on the part of the stockholders, in the policy pursued, but it cannot be received as evidence of the enlargement of the corporate par-ers of the company. No want of good faith is charged against be clevel and Company, in the course taken, but a misconstruction ers of the company. No wast of good faith is charged against ase of the company, in the course taken, but a misconstruction of its powers.

One semi-weekly payment of interest on the bonds was made by the Chveland commany, jointly with the Beliefortaine and Indianapolis and Seliefortaine company, who were coincovers with the Cleveland company. It has been sun itted that the contrast or guerantee between the Cleveland and Plana companies might have been set aside, for the defects stated in the proceedings, of which the parties to the contract had notice, had a bill been lifed by the Cleveland stockshifters; but it does not follow that the same relief can be given as a guinat the bona lide be unfolders.

Negotiable paper, which passes by indomestic but the contract of a course of parties are given as a conting to excite suspicion, the person who takes it home fide, of the course of humans, can enforce the payment of it, though it be not valid, as between the original parties. If on sice paper the equility are open as between this persons who created it, the negotiability would be destroyed. And this principle applies undly to corporations as to individuals.

Within a few years past several hundred millions of dollars in onds, payable to bearer, have been issued in this country, and sold here and in foreign countries, to bona inde purchasers. If rainet the holders of these bonds technical objections can be raised, as to the mode of their being issued when upon their face there was nothing to excite suspicion, but everything to wears confidence, it would destroy all reliance in such paper.

In the doctrine maintainable, that all who dear with a corporation must look into its charter, not only to be assured that our confidence, it would destroy all reliance in such paper.

the most look into its charter, not only to be assured that our porate powers have been conferred upon it, but to see that every bring in the express of a given power has been done in exact accordance with the mode provided, especially when its acts are set thing in the exercise of a given power has been done in exact accordance with the mode provided, especially when its acts are set terth in generaliterina, showing a compliance with the law?

Is every purchaser of a railroad bond, bound to certifinize the meetings of the Board, to see that the necessary number of the directors was present, to issue the bond? If this be necessary, must not the purchaser be also assured that the directors were duly exceed by the stockholders, on proper notice?

A corporation most act within its delegated powers, but its own records and official sets, within the scope of its powers is evidence against if, and will bind it. Any rule of construction which goes beyond this, is impracticable.

There is another consideration which cannot be omitted in this case. On let July, 1894, the agent of the complainant had notion of the midnessian of the stockholders of the indorserment of the bonds by the Campany, but the bid was not filed until the 18th of September, 1863, a lapse of more then two years. During the period the bonds were thrown into the market, and purchased by bun fide bonders. While the bonds remained in the power such cortains parties, a court of equity might have interposed, in regard to the power exercised. But after the bonds have been put into the market and passed into the hands of bora fide purchasers, a new right is nequired, which a court of equity cannot reach, unless the purchaser had such notice as to put him byte inquery. The ir junction was accordingly dissolved, and the

There seems to be a general resumption of work in our mills. No, 4 mill, on the Merrimac Corporation, which has been idle through the Winter, is reported to have started up on Monday. Nearly 250 additional locums were started on the Boott, and there is a gradual increase of help, we hear, on the Lawrence. The Middleser Company are now running about one-fourth of their machinery. The Lowell Company, who have been running only half of their carpes works, and none of their cotton works, during the Winter, will run on full time after the lat of sext month, but have not as yet signified any intention of elasting more locuse in either department.
